You Know You Are a Teacher When . . .

. . . you go to church and without thinking turn around and tell the people behind you to stop talking.

Smith

. . . you're the last one to find out what is going on around the school!

Waldrop

. . . you automatically start correcting letters from friends!

Tribble

. . . you learn there is to be an assembly from a student in your class.

Masters

. . . you have
"nightmares" about school problems in the middle of July.

E. Wood

. . . you awake at 6
AM, shower, dress, start for school and realize it's Sunday.

Sales

. . . you go to a nice restaurant and you are embarrassed because your hands are stained with colors from demonstrating and cleaning up after five classes of art!

"CAT" - C-A-T

MEMORIES

Many lovely memories are caught and stored away by the photographs we take upon a holiday.

The camera clicks and in a flash we catch a happy view, and the memory is kept of moments we once knew.

Year by year the numbers grow, and scenes accumulate,
put away into a drawer, forgotten, out-of-date.

But now and then when turning out amongst our odds and ends, we come upon them once again, discovering old friends.

Much is stirred within the heart as on these scenes we gaze, for old photographs revive good times and happy days.
